How often do employees ask for ID? There is only anecdotic stature on this but for Marriott, it's a 20-50 chance. TIPS: A hack that you can use is to say that you are using the code because you are a consultant for the company and have passed it along with you since you will invoice them back. Normally this is a good deflection for ID checks. What do I need to prove affiliation with the company? Officially, Marriott says: Please prepare you to show proof of eligibility for you (such as a membership card, corporate or government identification card, or proof of your age). This means that according to the rules, you need to assign either a business card, job badges, printing work-emails that you're affiliated with the company and the associated code you're using. As most of you know, Marriott and Starwood (SPG) merged into 2018 and at the moment have not been clarified around how corporate discount code would be affected. What they have done is essentially consolidate the codes by converting old SPG codes to their marriott. The challenge of course in putting this together was to clean everything, figuring out what is still working, and what old codes have been converted to the same new ones. I've checked each one and done my own calculations on discounted rates. The methodology to try to get a good sense of how these corporate codes work and understanding that the codes vary properties and regions in region, I wanted to cover as much as I reasonable I ended up choosing 4 different hotels for a night in Toronto, Washington, D.C, Frankfurt, and Tokyo. Going from massive list of old codes, I cleaned out all the ones that didn't work, they yielded 0% discounts, and also those who only worked in one region. For this effect, I really wanted to make sure I chose code that could work everywhere. The warning here is that the Off that you see is specific for the parameters I use. It helps to give you an idea of the amount of promotion but in my experience, it's not consistent in a region or even in the same city. Corporate code also does not apply to all hotels and can change code to code. List of Corporate Codes Marriott are numeric digits, mostly characters but some have numbers from them as well. These are sorted alphabetically by the company that they're associated with for full transparency. TIP: Each of the hyperlinks will copy the code to your computer's clipboard so you can paste it and it will also take you to Marriott booking page with the code already entered to save you time. Good to know: The advantage of the corporate codes is that they offer free cancellation up until 12:00 pm hotel time of the day in your reservation. What is the best discount code? The age-old question at best. Between regions, there are in many variations and even between properties but if I strictly look at the calculations that I've done, here are my top 5 codes: Simply subscribe to be an Insider and click the Download button. Access to the Marriott Corporate Code spreadsheet will be provided to you right away to see which hotel I choose and what booking parameters I've used. How to enter a Marriott corporate code entering a Marriott corporate code is quite easy. Here are the 4 steps to set in the code once you land on the Marriott website. Head to the homepage and look for special rates. With Special Rate open, click Corporate/Promo/SET# and a new field will be revealed below where you can enter the corporate code. The results won't reveal much but what is said is what homeowners have rates available. If your corporate code does not work for certain hotels, it will either say Available Rates or will dish out available. When you go to Percentage view, you'll be able to view the standard percentage with the corporate code rate. Under the Special Rates tab, you will also see which company the entered code is for. From here, this is just a question of clicking on Select to complete the booking process. How to quickly compare percentage Know how to apply the codes and which codes are the best one but as you have it, there is a level of random to how to work that you will always want to compare them. You can do this manually one at a time like I did, or you can go on it smarter. A tidy trick I learned recently is to Marriot the mobile app. Here's how it works. After you enter your hotel's search parameters, look for corporate/promotional codes. You can enter as many corporate codes as you want but the key is that you can only select 5 compared codes at a time. In this example for Cairo, the sweets thing is that you can see the lowest prices for the standard Advanced purchase price and also the 5% restructuring codes selected. In the above example, you will see that only 4 codes worked whereas the American Express code did not work. Marriott Bonvoy discounted the focus of hotel brands is to get Bonvoy members to book directly with them and with that, they try to offer good discounts and savings. While corporate codes will intuitively feel like you're getting a good discount, the truth is that opening the session as Marriott Bonvoy members and seeing what you get sometimes can provide better savings. The best of the savings is a Member Prepared Rate. If you look well below, the rate for this Toronto hotel is lower than most restructuring codes available. The initiative to Prepare and Save deals are that they are non-refundable that cannot work for many. Quarterly or so Marriott rolled out new promotions. Some are good, some are quite ambitious, and others are not worth your time. Many promotions are exclusive to members of Bonvoy Marriott so it's a no-brainer to join if you haven't already. Check out the latest Marriott Prime contract hotel where you should always watch to see what happens is below page. Public Marriott discount codes From the corporate codes, there are a bunch of codes looking for codes available for the public to use. These codes are constantly changing and creating different promotion facilities. The best place to find these public Marriott codes is on Flyertalk where there is a built-in wiki that shows you all of the current and valid and it's updated often enough. You'll find with the following unknown discount codes and will take a lot of judgments and errors but if you're dedicated, you can test them out. AAA, CAA, and Senior Discounts Almost every hotel chain offers for special and high graduate members. For those with an AAA or CAA membership, you are entitled to Savings. Officially, the discount is 5% of the base rate. That said, it's always worth checking the discount you can get because I saw it as good as 20-30% off. The only limit is that you're limited to 2 rooms by AAA/CAA members per night. The adult discount rate is whether you're 62 or more. The discount is 15% of the base rate. Price matching something that is easy to forget is the best Marriott guarantee rate. Here's how it works. If you get a lower rate for the same hotel, type of room and date (with a place like Booking.com) within 24 hours of making your reservation, all you have to do is submit a Better Rate Claim Form. You get one of two choices: 25% of the matching rate (20% for design 5,000 Marriott Bonvoy PointsThe code you cannot use Lastly, I have to mention a known code but you really can't use. Intended for hiring use, this code yielded the highest amount of discounts, where I saw 26% off in Toronto, 20% in Washington D.C., 35% in Frankfurt, and 38% in Tokyo. From what I've read, they almost always check ID for this around the world for the risk of using this as a non-high employer. It is also worth noting that you don't earn any points or get any night/stay stats if you use this. Frequently Asked Questions What Is the Best Corporate Marriott Code?
